Sullivan Cotter – Dojo cho of Kuching Aiki Shuren Dojo, Malaysia

I am proud to announce that Copenhagen Aiki Shuren Dojo has now made Kuching Aiki Shuren Dojo, under the leadership of Dojo Cho Sullivan Cotter, our first Branch Dojo.

Sullivan Cotter, Dojo cho of Kuching Aiki Shuren Dojo, has been a personal, direct student of mine for more than 15 years. He began training with me while I was one of the chief instructors in the Copenhagen Aikido Club.

When I opened my own Copenhagen Aiki Shuren Dojo in Valby, Copenhagen in 2003, Sullivan came with me and continued training under my supervision in our new Dojo until his return to Malaysia / Borneo.

Sullivan Cotter is a very dedicated, talented and hard-working Aikido instructor. He has an extensive background in many martial arts forms, which strengthens his understanding of Aikido theory and practice.

My teacher/student relationship with Sullivan Cotter goes back many years, and it is with great pleasure and pride that I can now make this relationship even closer, by making Sullivan Cotter and his Kuching Aiki Shuren Dojo our first Branch Dojo.

Sincerely,

Ethan Monnot Weisgard
